

HISTORIC HAUNTINGS

Don't miss this unique experience, presented by the Fayetteville Dogwood Festival organization. Take a haunted hayride through Fayetteville's downtown, as ghostly re-enactors and story-tellers share the spooky side of the city's history. "Meet" legendary spirits. Watch for Confederate soldiers as you make your way - by torchlight - through Cross Creek Cemetery. Hear actual tales of murder, mayhem, bloody battles and eerie encounters. Want to join us for this historic adventure into Fayetteville's chilling past? Reservations are required ... if you dare!

Hayride Tour by Candlelight

Plan your visit for some scary fun on the haunted hayride, and see what else Fayetteville has to offer. October is a beautiful time of year to enjoy the area's world-class attractions, historic sites and fascinating military lore, great shopping, golf, outdoor activities, arts and entertainment. With its prime location, right off I-95 and near other major highways, Fayetteville is easily accessible from locations throughout the southeast. For more information on Historic Hauntings, visit the Dogwood Festival organization's website or give us a call.
